

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Frank Brost serves as Executive Assistant to the Governor of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, I have never witnessed anyone fidget as much as Frank Brost; and,

WHEREAS, Frank Brost is going to lose whatever hair he has left if he doesn't quit nervously running his fingers through it; and,

WHEREAS, Frank may one day permanently maim some innocent person who is standing on the wrong side of a door that he comes crashing through; and,

WHEREAS, Frank seems to have taken lessons in dexterity from some of the big old cows he chases around his ranch; and,

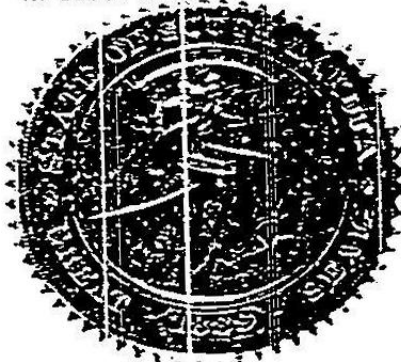

WHEREAS, Frank Brost's dedication to the legal profession is probably the only reason he hasn't found himself as a resident of one of our fine penal institutions; and,

WHEREAS, His work on behalf of U.S. Senator Jim Abdner may be explanation enough as to why Jim Abdner is no longer a U.S. Senator:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 18, 1988 as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
